TRUE CHARITY IS TRUE MASONRY.

Charity is the chief of every social virtue and the not only charity of almsgiving, but includes a su-preme degree of love to the great Creator and an intellectual Eighth, altas the "imper again demonstrated its ability for work, ther within the tiled portals of the lodge or Lodge." Ancient Freemasonry, was tenderly handled by M. V. Theophilus Prati. The Standard Work, by W. Colin D. Anderson, of Star of Cuba, and "The Level Club" was extelled and praised and leaded with bouquets of flowers by the new President and old Grater. Bro Stern, Dr. Grune told what he knew about Masonry, and W. Henry Lippman, another good son of Centennial, spoke for the wives, sisters, daughters and sweathearts of Masons, but Bro, Lippman for this once "flunked" and pleaded the baby act, saying "he had promised his wire to be home at Ir o'clock, and that, as it was then Irios, it would take him thirty-five minutes to reach home, for minutes to speak and ten minutes to see a man, and where will he be then?"

minutes to see a man, and where will be bettern?

But he managed to say some excellent things about Masonty, about the standard work, and, of course, a good many nice things about the district of which we are all proud. At the finish of his address, the brethren agreed to sign a petition to his good wife to say o him forgiven lest this once. It. W. Abayev. Patterson, Grand Representative of the found todge of Scotland told some good startes and recited some interesting reminiscences. R. W. George H. Toop also spoke as did W. Jere Mulford, of Naphthail Lodge and many others. Ameng the imany present were Chapman and Gweise, of charity. Hafely and Thomas of Republics Sharts and Hough of Alma: White and Salmon of Maintaides. Meerison, of Veritas, Glenn, of Justice. From Wikinson, Proops, and representative of nearly every lodge in the district. The religing and the incoming presidents, as well as the members, our candided Box Anderson who had shares of the entire affair, upon the success of the dimer, which was excellent; and the specifies made, though mostly short and informal and successfulness in good fasts, without any pretines as gratory, but solely with a view to satisfy the brethron, and all seemed to be well pleased and work.

A HOME VISITATION.

The communications of La Fraternidad Lodge No. 257 are always of an interesting nature, but that of March 26 was more than usually so. Among the features were the reception of R. W. Remigio Lopez, D. D. G. M., Teath Massanic District. to this his home fodge, and the presentation of certificates of honorary membership to R. W. Wright D. Pownall, Deputy Grand Master, and R. W. Serving as Master and District Deputy at the presentation of telaps again in 1886-188, and Master in 1897, still serving as Master and District Deputy at the presentation of telaps of the presentation of the presentation of Wright D. Pownall, Deputy Grand Master, and R. W. E. M. L. Ehlers, Grand Secretary. The presentation of the First Masonic District, and is kept busy all the time in the interest of the craft. An energetic worker like this must make his improvement of the craft of the craft. ceptance proved how deeply the honor was appreciated by the R. W. Brothers, and the breaking worker like this must make his impreciation of the privilege. Singing by the Temple Quariet, and some instrumental made by St. Ceefin perved to enlive the evening. The Star-Spangled Bunner was sting at the close, the pairfolts feeling of all present being wrought up to the Each. Pelvastions were present from all the longes of the Initial Bostiet, an ompanied by their Masters, and many prominent members of the court had assembled, including R. W. Stewart Wilson, Elbert Crandall, G. H. Toop, F. T. Slack, John A. Siy, Josha Smith, John A. Kennedy, Morgan Praser, Jenkins Taylor and others. John A. Siy, Josiah Smith, John A. Ker gan Pruser, Jenkins Taylor and others.

HARLEM LODGE VO. 357.

It was essentially "visitors' night" at this lodge last Thursday evening, and W. Bro. Briggs is to be congratulated on the result of his efforts to take the occurron one long to be remembered by the brethren of Harlem. R. W. John A. Sly, D. D. G. M. of the Seventh District, made his official visit, and Most Venerable Bro. John Alsderp and a large delegation of the Masunic Veterans, among whom were sixteen members of Harlem Lodge

Pratt and Thurber of the Veterang and R. W. Bros.
Lopez, Affleck and Toope addressed the lodge, and their remarks were enthusiastically received by the large and appreciative audience. One of the most pleasing incidents was the presentation by M. V.
Bro. Stewart to W. Bro. Combes of a thirty-seconddegree ring, as an evidence of the love and respect entertained for him by the members of the lodge.
There were also present R. W. Bros. Mullen,
P. G. S. B.; Allan Williams and C. O. Hubbell,
P. D. D. G. M.; R. W. Bro. Toope, trustee of the Hall and Asylum Fund; W. Bro. Stinner, Grard Pursulvant, and a large number of Masters and Past Masters of other lodges, all of which shows the popularity of Harlem Lodge, not only in its own ballwick, but also among the downlown brethren. Harlem Lodge boasts of the best attendance of its cwn members of any lodge on Manhattan Island, and it fully deserves all the henor that can be paid to A good, solid lodge of active, hard-working Masons.

ST. CECILE'S GREAT DAY.

A THOUSAND VISITORS PRESENT, INCLUD-ING TWO HUNDRED FROM MOZART

LODGE, PHILADELPHIA. Tuesday's matinee of St. Cecile Lodge No. ing. It was a day of days. At 3 o'clock there were fully one thousand Masonic brethren in and about the commandery room of the temple. Standing local brethren who came later went away, unable to guin entrance because of the crush. Notwithstanding the crowded condition of the hall and corridor, every one appeared in the best of humor. and the afternoon will live in the memory of the participants as one to be never forgotten. convocation, the companions of this and other chapters gathering to witness the presentation of a testimonial to Past High Priest John R. Gardner, "the busy man in the craft," the only man in this city who at one time carried three charters of as many Masonic bodies. The testimonial was in the shape of a loving cup of gigantic size and exquisite workmanelly. Past High Priest William D. Critcherson made the presentation and dwelt upon the earnest devotion shown by Bro. Gardner, upon the watchful care with which he built up and maintained the good name and good work of the chapter, etc. The reply of Excellent Companion Gardner was somewhat in a humorous vein, but nevertheless earnest, sincere, and showed grateful appreciation. He said in part: "In accepting this testimonial I cannot have re-course to the time-honored sentiment that this is one of the greatest surprises of my life, etc., for as you are all aware, such presentations to a retiring P. I am a living exemplification of the poet whe says. The path of glory leads but to the grave. For you will remember that after an active service to this chapter which finally ended by serving it as II. P. I was honorably, but none the less securely, laid away to perpetual rest, to take my place with the other cadavers, whose names new appear as P. H. a brief moment. I feel that I have a just reason to be proud of the results of the year just ended, for certainly no H. P. was ever served more faithfully or capably by his officers than myself, and the general high character and intellectuality of the candidates will have considerable bearing on the future history of Jerusalem. I gratefully acknowledge the kind words spoken of me to-night, and you may rest assured that this beautiful loving cup, massive and large, and capable of containing an immonse amount of liquid—which latter feature I presume the committee have had in mind, relative to my capacity—will always be to me a remembrance beyond price, and a fangible reminder of the time when I served this grand old body as its presiding officer."

The Royal Arch degree was conferred in full form upon three classes, after which a banquet wound up the pleasures of the evening. Companion John R. Tresidder presided and delivered one of his cloquent and telling addresses, which was received with much pleasure, and was loudly cheered by the companions. Many of the companions and guests of the evening addressed the brethren.

LODGE NOTES.

THE TOILERS IN MASONIC QUARRIES. Daniel Carpenter Lodge No. 642 conferred the second degree Saturday night, with W. Charles H. Grube, the Master, in the East, W. Enos V. Dutcher explained the working tools and W. Archibaid Culbert gave the explanatory lecture. This lodge is preparing for an exceptionally interesting evening at the next meeting, which will occur on April 2, at which the third degree will be given, with several prominent craftsmen in the East.

ROYAL ARCH ITEMS.

Union Chapter conferred the mark degree in full form upon several candidates in search for "more light in Masoary." E. David Kay presided, assisted by Post High Priests Hall, Baldwin Spence, McDonald, Clark and Altehinson. Among the visitors were R. Es. Muchsam and Albert Maxfield. The work was done in exceedingly good form.

Triune Chapter had more than its share of brilliant luminaries at the last convocation, hed in Mazonic Hall on Monday evening. E. Companion Frank D. Brooks, the High Priest, presided, and conferred the mark and past degrees, while the most excellent degree was conferred by the expertitualist in Royal Arch Masonry, R. E. Companion Adolph Muchsam. All the degrees were given in complete standard style and with deep expression, in the presence of a goodly array of zealous companions. M. E. Companions Coburn and Avers and Es. Whitney and Martin were present. The evening was made additionally pleasant by the sudden and unexpected appearance of the Deputy Grand High Priest, R. E. John W. Paimer, who paid Triune a social visit.

Empire Chapter No. Es worked the mark degree in faultless standard style, with E. Walter Eatts in the East, assisted by the efficient and well, trained officers of Empire. Among the numerous visitors were Es. Salmon, Bogert, Stevens, of Orient, and J. H. Sigsworth, of No. 1,688, Walton, England. Numerous applications for membership were handed in and the chapter will be kept busy for the balance of the season.

for the balance of the season.

Royal Arch Masons came together from everywhere at Amity Chapter, and they left all their dignity and the remembrance of the solemn ceremonies outside the Tabernacle, for they came at the invitation of Amity Chapter to enjoy a "smoker," and the companions did this with the same zeal and enthusiasm with which they enter upon all thines, especially upon the work of the Capitular Rite.

The seams were scaled to it. Capitular Rite.

The rooms were packed to the doors, and every number on the programme was received with shouts of enthusiasm, everybody present enjoyed the fun, enjoyed the singing, the recitations and the good cigars, and, above all, enjoyed each other's society. Among the fun-makers were Brad Law, comedian; Miss Vera King, soubrette, Charles Simerson, Danlel Dietrich, Sam Lambert and Charles Weber. The evening was a most enjoyable one, and was "taken in" by about everybody who could crowd in the spacious rooms at Carnegie Hall. P. G. H. P. Frederick E. Barnes was the moving spirit, aided by Charles E. Lansing, Mor-gan Hough, Schoonover, Pearce, Newton, Miller, England and Rogers.

gan Hough, Schoonover, Pearce, Newton, Miller, England and Rogers.

Grand High Priest Perry, of Florida, used the following thoughtful language in the recent address to his Grand Chapter: "Suffer me to add one piece of advice, which I am persuaded you will find no less advantageous for the good government of your chapters than what I have already said, and that is that all of us be exceedingly careful in the admission of new members. We have all, perhaps, been too eager in this respect. When an applicant presents his petition, let us seriously consider whether his conduct in and attention to the Blue Lodge be such as may not have a tendency to diminish the credit and honor of our chapters. We are not respectable by reason of our numerical strength, but by the quality of the material with which we build. It is just as absurd to imagine that respectability consists in numbers as that greatness consists in size or dimensions."

WITH SCOTIA LODGE

members of Scotia Lodge gathered in large numbers in the Commandery Room last Thursday evening to have an entertainment, reception and dance. Refreshments were served during the evening in the adjoining banquet-room.

The brethren were particularly well pleased, and each bore a happy and contended smile at the fact that their wives, sisters and daughters were with them, and hence there was no reason to hurry home The members of Scotia Lodge are well known among the fraternity for their proclivity of going home early from lodge meetings, and it is only when they bring their home idols along that they remain out late, and this was one of the nights to stay, and these brethren have "staying" qualities, too.

The programme was very fine and very select.
